

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Alabama Baptist Children's Honor Choir (CHC) will be performing in Prattville and Elmore, March 4th and March 5th, respectively. This 116-voice auditioned choir is composed of fourth through sixth grade boys and girls from all over the state of Alabama. Their repertoire of music is enhanced by a variety of instruments, sign language, movement and media. These concerts are free to the public to attend.

Their concert schedule includes:

March 4	6:30 p.m.	First Baptist Church, Prattville
March 5	10:00 a.m.	Crossroads Community Church, Elmore (Morning Worship Service)

During the CHC's 23 years of ministry, more than 3,000 auditioned students in grades 4-6 from across Alabama have participated, said Karen Gosselin, the choir's director and Coordinator of Worship Resources with the Alabama Baptist State Board of Missions (SBOM), Montgomery, which sponsors the choir.

"Children leave every year with a different appreciation for who God is and for music and what it does," Gosselin stated.

For more information, contact the SBOM Office of Worship Resources at (334) 613-2230.

CHC PHOTO:

<https://www.dropbox.com/s/icmvsx2ghxjg857/HONORCHOIR.jpg?dl=0>

